American Profit Recovery Receives Two Prestigious Awards

Third-party collection agency recognized for excellence in industry

Farmington Hills, MI –American Profit Recovery, a leading collection agency was recently recognized for their excellence in the collections industry, with two separate awards: a 2008 Best Places to Work in Collections award and the Collection Advisor Magazine’s 50-Most Influential Collection Professionals award.

APR was recognized with the Best Places to Work in Collections award, created by insideARM.com and Best Companies Group. The acknowledgment was designed to identify the best places of employment in the collections industry, benefiting the nation’s economy, its workforce and businesses. The process evaluated companies from across the country in: workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics and was followed by an employee survey.

APR was also honored with the Collection Advisor Magazine Top 50 Most Influential Collection Professionals award given to Matt Moskowitz, one of the five partners at APR. Award winners, like Moskowitz, were chosen for their exceptional leadership, collection methods and insight that makes them market leaders. This is the second year in a row American Profit Recovery has been honored with this award.

“We have put our heart and soul into making this a business we could be proud of, stated Moskowitz. “In 2004 we set out to develop American Profit Recovery, a debt recovery agency that was different in every way and we continue to work hard to dispel the negative connotations associated with traditional collection agencies. We are thrilled to earn both awards which recognize our hard work and desire to be different at American Profit Recovery.”
