

Collection Agency Still Touts Benefits of Flat-Fee System

American Profit Recovery Provides Affordable Debt Collection with Flat-Fee System

Marlborough, MA, October 2009; American Profit Recovery, a collection agency based in Michigan, Massachusetts and North Carolina was founded on a proven system of third-party debt collection that is highlighted by a flat, low fee solution. APR's system has helped thousands of companies in a variety of sizes and industries afford the help they need to get back the money that is owed to them. APR flagship program costs as little as $5 to $20 per account, regardless of the amount collected.

The investment is a fraction of what many traditional collection agencies charge. This feasible solution can help small businesses free up staff time to focus on day to day operations and customer visits, while also helping with outstanding receivables.

“Finding help from an affordable and reputable collection agency that also offers a flat-fee system can help your business thrive during tough times,” says Jeff DiMatteo, a partner at American Profit Recovery. “We firmly believe in resolving debt, not just collecting it from customers, but we also believe in making it affordable.

American Profit Recovery <http://www.americanprofit.net/> has worked with a host of industries and has helped free up current staff and reduce overall costs associated with recovering bad debt. Their benefits in savings have been measured in: improved cash flow when overdue accounts are settled quickly, increased efficiency when staff is not tied up pursuing monies owed, and outstanding results that exceed the collection industry average all with lower costs

APR's flat-fee structure coupled with respect, diplomacy and a focus on ethics makes it affordable and comfortable for any businesses to seek assistance in collecting unpaid invoices.
