Collection Agency to Exhibit at One of the Largest Green Industry Trade Shows in the Country

Experts in Lawn and Landscaping Collections, American Profit Recovery will Exhibit at GIE in Kentucky

Marlborough, Mass – American Profit Recovery, a collection agency with expertise in helping lawn care and landscaping companies and others in the green industry with their accounts receivables will be exhibiting at GIE, The Green Industry and Equipment Expo, October 27-29. APR will be at Booth # 9193. This will be the company's fourth year at GIE.

Five percent of all sales from this show will be donated to the American Cancer Society and their Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walks.

The collection agency with offices in Massachusetts as well as Michigan and North Carolina works extensively not only with lawn care and landscaping professionals but with equipment manufacturers and distributors to provide third-party support to their internal collections process.

GIE or The Green Industry and Equipment Expo run by The Professional Landcare Network (PLANET) is held in Louisville Kentucky and sees over 18,000 attendees in the green industry. It's the largest trade show in the country for the outdoor power equipment industry which serves many in the green industry.

American Profit Recovery will be talking to attendees about their very popular Tier I Flat-Fee Collections system as well as other solutions that can save a company in the green industry time, money and valuable internal resources. At the same time the company can have complete online access to all account activity at any hour of the day and know that the collection agency is being very diplomatic with their customers, which is all very attractive to those in the green industry.
